LONDON HOSPITAL, WHITECHAPEL, E.

TREASURER.—T. FOWELL BUXTON, Esq.
FUNDS ARE URGENTLY NEEDED by this Charity.
During the past year it has been compelled to sell out £1,770. Stock, besides borrowing nearly £600, in order to meet current expenditure.
The London Hospital bases its APPEAL FOR HELP on the following grounds:—It maintains nearly 800 beds, and being the only large general Hospital for the Eastern half of the Metropolis and the vast suburbs adjacent, its resources are constantly taxed to the utmost. It is virtually a Free Hospital, devoted to the service of the public, nearly three-fourths of the In-patients being received without the recommendation of subscribers. The Patients are, in fact, admitted into the wards according to the severity of their cases, as judged by the Medical and Surgical Officers.
No accident, or similarly urgent case, is ever refused admission.
The yearly cost of maintenance is upwards of £6,000, while the fixed income of the Institution is less than £4,000 a year. To carry on its important work the London Hospital is therefore mainly dependent upon the liberality of the general Public, especially as the districts surrounding the Hospital are extremely poor, and can contribute but slightly to its support.
The following figures will show the value of this Institution in the treatment of accident and disease:—

SUMMARY OF PATIENTS TREATED AT THE LONDON HOSPITAL IN 1877.
IN-PATIENTS ADMITTED.
Free cases	2,612
Accidents	2,419
Urgent extra cases	5,061

Note.—The Wards are always open, and those interested in hospital work are invited to inspect them.
OUT-PATIENTS.
Recommended by Subscribers	18,609
Free (including 9,123 accidents)	29,837
Out-Patients during the year	47,536

Total of Patients in 1877. (In-Patients, 6,852; Out Patients, 47,536) 54,388
Contributions of whatever amount in aid of this Charity will be thankfully received. Annual Subscriptions are especially solicited, as forming a source of assured income. Government: annual, £5. 5s.; Life: 31l. 10s., entitling to recommend one in-patient and four out-patients at the same time. Subscribers of less than 5l. 5s. yearly receive three out-patient letters per annum.

LESSING: HIS LIFE AND WRITINGS. By JAMES SIME, M.A.

"It is to Lessing that an Englishman would turn with readiest affection. We cannot but wonder that more of this man is not known among us."—Thomas Carlyle.

"But to Mr. James Sime has been reserved the honour of presenting to the English public a full-length portrait of Lessing, in which no portion of the canvas is uncovered, and in which there is hardly a touch but tells. He has studied his subject with that patient care which only reverence and sympathy can support; he has attained the true proportion which can alone be gained by penetration and clear insight into motive and purpose. Great was the theme, and one that demanded a steady hand. We can say that a clearer or more compact piece of biographic criticism has not been produced in England for many a day."—Westminster Review.

"This reproach has now been removed, and this has been accomplished by as careful and scholarly a piece of work, taken as a whole, as it has lately been our good fortune to meet. . . . In the meantime we would only add here our cordial appreciation of a really admirable piece of biographical and critical work. Although the fruit of minute and careful study, the style of the book renders it eminently readable, and it will be treasure-trove to all (and in these days they are legion) to whom German literature has attractions."—British Quarterly Review.

"An account of Lessing's life and work on the scale which he deserves is now for the first time offered to English readers. Mr. Sime has performed his task with industry, knowledge, and sympathy; qualities which must concur to make a successful biographer."—Pall Mall Gazette.

"Surely this work, written with such enthusiasm and painstaking accuracy, will not only be appreciated by the author's countrymen, but is sure also to obtain many warm friends in the land of Lessing."—Weiser Zeitung.

"This is an admirable book. It lacks no quality that a biography ought to have. Its method is excellent; its theme is profoundly interesting; its tone is the happiest mixture of sympathy and discrimination; its style is clear, masculine, free from effort or affectation, yet eloquent by its very sincerity. It is not a page too long; and, though the reader closes it with regret, the critic must own that it is not a page too short."—Standard.

"Mr. Sime's volumes embody the results of careful scholarship and independent reflection. He renders, on the whole, ample justice to the philosophical side of his subject."—Mind.

Now ready, post 8vo, pp. 344, cloth, price 19s. 6d.

ENGLISH RULE and NATIVE OPINION in INDIA. A Series of Gleanings from the Notes of a Journalist in the years 1870-72, and again in 1874. By JAMES ROUTLEDGE.

"Mr. Routledge observes more than he speculates, and gets up facts as well as reasons on them, and few will read his work without owning that they have been informed or reminded in a pleasant gossiping manner of facts connected with India which they are glad to have had brought before them."—Saturday Review.

"Throughout it he shows himself to be a well-informed and sagacious observer, wide-reaching in his intellectual and moral sympathies, and deeply in earnest. In regard to its weightier contents, this is by far the best book we have had since Dr. Hunter's 'Life of Lord Mayo.'"—Athenaeum.

"He is master of a strong, rapid, glowing style, which imparts a certain freshness to his tritest remarks, and his power of portraying character and reproducing historic incidents and personal experiences cannot be disputed."—Allen's Indian Mail.

NEW WORK BY THE AUTHOR OF "EREWON."

Now ready, crown 8vo, pp. 300, cloth, 7s. 6d.

LIFE and HABIT. By S. BUTLER, Author of

"Erewhon" and "The Fair Haven."

"An attempt by the author of 'Erewhon' to consider, in a popular way, whether the unconsciousness, or quasi-unconsciousness, with which we perform certain acquired actions, throws light on embryology and inherited instincts; also upon the question of the origin of species and the continuation of life by successive generations."—Mind.
